SERIES DIRECTOR

I'm a BAFTA winning director with over 20 years experience working across numerous genres, from factual entertainment, sports, lifestyle, travel, arts, music and science. I've directed commercials, on-line campaigns and TV documentaries. I have a strong visual narrative and have enjoyed creating the look and style formats for numerous projects. As well as directing big set pieces with large crews, I'm also an accomplished producer, editor and self-shooter with a creative eye for detail and good nose for a story.
